

On 1 October 2010, Malta made available to UNIDROIT the following information about the laws and policies relating to the matters covered by the Convention and Aircraft Protocol:

1. The Government of Malta has implemented the Cape Town Convention and its Aircraft Protocol by virtue of the First Schedule to the Aircraft Registration Act, 2010, Chapter 503 of the Laws of Malta (the “Act”).
2. In particular, it is noted that the Act has implemented Article X of the Aircraft Protocol, at article 20 of the First Schedule to the Act, and has implemented Article XI of the Aircraft Protocol (Alternative A), at article 23 of the First Schedule to the Act. The latter article sets out a waiting period of thirty (30) calendar days.
