² Greece currently owes one year of statutory contributions (not including 2012).

³ Iran currently owes UNIDROIT two years of statutory contributions (not including 2012).

⁴ Nigeria had settled all of its arrears 2005, without, however, settling its statutory contribution for the same year. It has since made no payment in 2006, settled two years of arrears in 2007, made no payment in 2008, settled the two preceding years (but not the current year) in 2009 and made no payment in 2010. Nigeria currently owes UNIDROIT three years of statutory contributions (not including 2012).

⁵ The amount due by Pakistan represents the residual difference between contributions due and actual payments made since the financial year 1997. Apart from 1997, 2000 and 2004, Pakistan has always made annual payments, albeit rarely equal to the amount of its contribution. Currently, Pakistan owes UNIDROIT slightly more than one year of statutory contributions (not including 2012).

⁶ Serbia currently owes UNIDROIT two years of statutory contributions (not including 2012).
