
UNIDROIT/FAO/IFAD Legal Guide on Contract Farming

Jointly drafted by UNIDROIT, FAO and IFAD, this publication provides a legal analysis of contract farming arrangements, which are increasingly used worldwide for the production of agricultural products.

The Guide provides legal guidance based on internationally accepted standards of practice for agricultural producers and agri-businesses engaged in the processing, exportation and marketing of agricultural products. The Guide is a useful tool and reference point for a broad range of users involved in contract farming practice, policy design, legal research and capacity building. Above all, the Guide will contribute to the creation of a favourable, equitable and sustainable environment for contract farming.

Book content: Introduction, I – The legal framework for agricultural production contracts, II – The parties to the contract, formation and form, III – Obligations of the parties, IV – Excuses for non-performance, V – Remedies for breach, VI – Contract's duration, renewal and termination, VII – Dispute resolution

For more information: <http://www.unidroit.org/work-in-progress-studies/current-studies/contract-farming>

Free download of the pdf version

Free download of the French pdf version

ORDER YOUR COPY at publications@unidroit.org

ISBN 978-88-86449-30-4

252 pages - Soft-bound Price - 35 Euros

20% discount for book sellers and students shipping included